Themes

This year's title is "Yarning from the Heart by the Sea" and the focus is on promoting Aboriginal and rural and remote sexual health. The themes are Community Partnerships, Creative Ways of Engaging Young People, Men's and Women's Sexual Health and Clinical Issues. The program includes wonderful speakers and performers from far and wide and opportunities for discussion groups, yarning, questions and networking. There will be interactive sessions to help you to develop resources and skills to take back to your workplaces.

Presenters

The keynote speaker is Associate Professor Simon Forrest, the Director of the Centre for Aboriginal Studies at Curtin University. Other speakers include Deanna Eades from Carnarvon AMS, Jacqueline McGowan-Jones from DCP, Dr Paula Edgill from Derbarl Yerrigan Health Service and the Centre for Aboriginal Medical and Dental Health and Dr Lewis Marshall from the B2 Sexual Health Service. There will be presentations and skills workshops about the use of DVD-making, song-writing and dance in youth sexual health promotion.

Please visit the FPWA homepage at www.fpwa.org.au for updates to the Forum program.

Accommodation

We will be using the nearby Quest Harbour Apartments for accommodation. Uniquely located on the Quay on Challenger Harbour, Quest Harbour Village is within easy walking distance to Fremantle's historical mid-19th Century buildings, galleries, museums, boutique bars and restaurants. All apartments have a view of either the Fishing Boat Harbour or Challenger Harbour and ocean.
