

Family Violence Workshop

Facilitated by Emeritus Professor Judy Atkinson & Judy Knox
We Al-li Pty Ltd

WA Family Pathways Network and Aboriginal Family Violence Service is happy to bring to WA this groundbreaking seminar on Family Violence and intergenerational healing.

Two workshops will be held in Perth, one in Kalgoorlie and another in Kununurra.

To be considered for this course applications are required. Eligibility to attend is based on applicant's current work with clients experiencing family violence and associated trauma. Those who work with Aboriginal and CALD families will especially be considered.

A maximum of three staff from any one agency will be considered for a workshop.

To be considered for a workshop, please complete the attached registration form. A statement as to how attendance will benefit you in your work also is required.
