

KEEP
THIS DATE

Indigenous Allied Health Australia Inc. 2012 National Conference & AGM

Joining the Dots ... An Interprofessional Approach to Indigenous Health

The conference is focused on the importance of inter-professional working relationships and partnerships within the diversity of allied health services and the broader health and related areas to improve the health and wellbeing of Indigenous Australians.

This two day conference provides a supportive environment for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander and non-Indigenous professionals to discuss topics on:

- Indigenous Allied Health initiatives
- Education and Training
- Cultural competency
- Holistic care
- Personal experiences
- Closing the Gap
- Health leadership and influencing policy
- Lateral violence
- Inter-professional partnerships
- Community health services

We welcome our IAHA members to the Annual General Meeting and Forum on Saturday 24 November 2012. IAHA full and associate members may be eligible for scholarships to assist with travel/accommodation and registration fees. Further information and applications will be available on the website www.indigenouslyalliedhealth.com.au soon.

If you are not a member of IAHA please see our website for eligibility and JOIN NOW!

22-24 November 2012

The Bardon Centre, Bardon, Brisbane QLD 4065

Full details are available on our website www.indigenouslyalliedhealth.com.au

Indigenous Allied Health Australia Inc. 2012 National Conference & AGM

Joining the Dots ...

An Interprofessional Approach to Indigenous Health

The Indigenous Allied Health Australia Inc. (IAHA) 'Joining the Dots... An Interprofessional Approach to Indigenous Health' national conference is focused on the importance of interprofessional working relationships and partnerships within the health and related sectors. Approaches to improving the health of Indigenous Australians can be based around holistic health care addressing cultural, spiritual, emotional, physical and environmental dimensions provided by many different health professions and organisations.

This two day conference provides a supportive environment for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander and non-Indigenous professionals to:

- showcase their initiatives working with Indigenous Australian communities or regions;
- establish networks with a broad range of health and other professionals;
- share information, knowledge, personal and professional experiences through success stories, presentations, and interactive sessions;
- strengthen our health workforce and cultural competency; and
- build sustainable ways forward in improving the health of Indigenous Australians.

Who should attend

- IAHA full and associate members
- Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander allied health professionals
- Other Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander health professionals and related sectors
- Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander organisations and groups
- Non-Indigenous allied health and other health professionals

We welcome our IAHA members to the Annual General Meeting and Forum on Saturday 24 November 2012. If you are not a current IAHA member visit our website for eligibility or contact the Secretariat on 02 62851010 to JOIN NOW!

Registrations and Scholarships

Registrations will open in June 2012. Please visit our website for regular updates at www.indigenoualliedhealth.com.au or email admin@indigenoualliedhealth.com.au.

Scholarships will be available for eligible IAHA members to assist with travel/ accommodation and registration fees. Further information will be sent out to members and applications will open in June 2012.