Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander

Post-Doctoral Research Fellowship

Call for Expressions of Interest

ECU is committed to increasing the employment of Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander people in academic roles, under the ECU Reconciliation Action Plan (RAP) and the ECU Indigenous Australian Employment Strategy 2012-15.

ECU is proud to offer for the second time in two years the following opportunity:

A postdoctoral research fellowship is offered for an Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander person who has completed the requirements of a PhD\(^1\), or other research doctorate, within the last five years and can demonstrate an interest and aptitude in pursuing research in areas of strategic importance for ECU.

- This fellowship provides an opportunity to establish a research career and build a research profile, working with highly qualified researchers and research facilities.
- Ideally your unique insights will contribute to research that will improve outcomes for Indigenous Australians.
- The role will be a shared appointment between Kurongkurl Katitjin and the School or Research Institute where the research is being led to ensure strong networks and support for your work.
- Mentoring and professional development support is also available.

Appointment is for three (3) years at the equivalent of Academic Lecturer (Level B step 1) salary. The fellowship will be based at either the metropolitan campuses of Joondalup or Mount Lawley and will commence in February 2015.

Aboriginality is an inherent requirement of this position per Section 50D of the WA Equal Opportunity Act (1984)

Specific opportunities exist in association with the Australian Indigenous HealthInfoNet. Please contact Professor Neil Drew (Director, Australian Indigenous HealthInfoNet, n.drew@ecu.edu.au; 08 9370 6155) or Professor Colleen Hayward AM (Pro-Vice-Chancellor, Equity and Indigenous and Head of Kurongkurl Katitjin, c.hayward@ecu.edu.au; 08 9370 6773) to discuss these. Additional details of other areas of research focus are presented on http://www.ecu.edu.au/centres/office-of-research-and-innovation/research-profile).”
