Welcome to the Australian Indigenous HealthInfoNet

Welcome to the HealthInfoNet - 'one-stop info-shop' that aims to contribute to 'closing the gap' in health between Indigenous and other Australians by informing practice and policy in Indigenous health by making research and other knowledge readily accessible. We also support 'yarning places' (electronic networks) that encourage information-sharing and collaboration among people working in health and related sectors.

The screenshot shows the website's navigation and content. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links: Home, About, Funders, Resources, Contact, Warning, Journal, Bibliography, and A to Z index. The main header features the site logo and a search bar with the text "Type keywords + Enter" and a "Go" button. Below the header is a yellow navigation menu with categories: Health facts, Chronic conditions, Infectious conditions, Other health conditions, Related issues, Determinants, Protective & risk factors, Population groups, States and Territories, and Health systems.

The main content area is titled "Social and emotional wellbeing (including mental health)" and includes a welcome message: "Welcome to the indigenous social and emotional wellbeing (SEWB) web resource - a 'one-stop info-shop' for people working, studying or interested in addressing issues that influence the social and emotional wellbeing (including mental health) of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples."

There are several content blocks on the page:

- Reviews: A review of the social and emotional wellbeing of Indigenous Australian peoples; Other reviews; Background information.
- Plain language: Background information.
- Policies and strategies: Indigenous: National; Indigenous: States and Territories; General: National; General: States and Territories; Related publications.
- Programs and projects: Healing Foundation; Bringing Them Home (BTH); Link-Up; SEWB Regional Centres; Mental Health Program; Improving the capacity of Workers in Indigenous communities; Programs and projects list.
- Resources: Health promotion resources; Assessment tools; Guidelines; Journals.
- Publications: General; Specific topics; Key references; Reference lists; Conference presentations.
- Organisations: (No list provided).
- Workforce: (No list provided).
- About this web resource: (No list provided).

On the right side, there are three boxes:

- News: Dementia web resource now available - 3 November 2009; More SEWB news.
- Yarning place: Register now and share information with other people; Join now or log in.
- Bibliography: Search the most comprehensive bibliography on indigenous social and emotional wellbeing publications.

At the bottom right, there are two more boxes:

- Share your information: Share your info; Feedback.
- Related pages: Substance misuse.
