

Community Outreach Program

An Aboriginal Health Educator conducts Programs on the palliative approach to care in communities.

- What is Palliative Care
- Symptom management and medications
- Grief and Loss
- Care Planning
- Family and teamwork
- Guest Speakers

Top left corner
Location: North East NT, East Arnhem
Community: Miraka
Artists: Derapay, Wawemki, Doolings, Minka, Weyewanga, Manka.
Caring and sharing for the sick, caring, maba, lila, Yaku, connected and strong.

Top right corner
Location: Northwest Islands, Tiri Islands
Community: Garden Point
Artist: Nini Paurulabawel
Speers, ambaroo and parkman pods for ceremony after the person has passed away.

Bottom left corner
Location: Mid NT, Katherine region
Community: Katherine
Artist: Sam-Jel M'Assan
Frothwater animals, crocodiles and fish, connected to the deceased person.

The Northern Territory Aboriginal Palliative Care Model
Model design by Bev Derschow

Bottom right corner
Location: Central Australia
Community: Alice Springs
Artist: Karina Napuragari Fernald
How the palliative care team works with the Aboriginal people and their families.

Aboriginal Health Workers, community members, families and other Allied Health disciplines from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds are encouraged to apply.

For more info contact
PEPA Aboriginal Education Officer
Ph: 08 89 227679 Fax: 08 8922 6775

www.pepaeducation.com