CONTESTING COLONIALISM:

INDIGENOUS KNOWLEDGE AND INDIGENOUS RESEARCH

ISSN 1838-6288

Title: Conception Totem Place with Emu Footprints Artist (c) Payi Linda Ford

We acknowledge the First Peoples of the Countries that are now called Australia.
 We are committed to respect and support Indigenous Sovereignty through the publication of Indigenous Knowledge.

The More Things Change: The Origins and Impact of Australian Indigenous Economic Exclusion

Rae Norris

ISBN: 978-1-921214-79-0, 2011, 212 pages, Institution: $99.00 - Individual: $65.00 - Student: $52.00

This important new study shows how the combination of legislative barriers and racist attitudes served to exclude Indigenous Australians from employment in the past and to nullify their persistent efforts to take advantage of economic opportunities generated by white settlement.

Indigenous Narratives of Success:

Building Positive and Effective Communication in Group Conversation

Janice A Stewart

ISBN: 978-1-921214-51-6, 2009, 264 pages, Institution: $89.25 - Individual: $59.50 - Student: $47.60

In this text, Jan Stewart accomplishes a two-fold task: a methodological challenge of co-constructing, with a group of students, a research-based account of Indigenous success in an Australian university.

Aboriginal Knowledge Narratives & Country: Marri kunkimba putj putj marrideyan

Payi Linda Ford

ISBN: 978-1-921214-71-4, 2010, 230 pages, Institution: $95.00 - Individual: $65.00 - Student: $55.00

Dr. Payi Linda Ford is a senior Rak Mak Mak Marranunggu woman whose country is Kurrindju in the Finnis River and Reynold River regions of the Northern Territory. The thesis on which this book is based is a culmination of research which drew on tyangi wedi tjan Rak Mak Mak Marranunggu and Marrithiel knowledge systems.

Arlathirnda Ngurkarnda Ityirnda:

Being - Knowing - Doing: De-colonising Indigenous Tertiary Education

Veronica Arbon

ISBN: 978-1-921214-40-0, 2008, ii+194 pages, Institution: $86.25 - Individual: $57.50 - Student: $51.75

This book points to the struggles that emerge when change is made in the core knowledge-production and transmission work of Indigenous tertiary education.

Please Knock Before You Enter:

Aboriginal Regulation of Outsiders and the Implications for Researchers

Karen L Martin

ISBN: 978-1-921214-37-0, 2008, 170 pages, Institution: $82.45 - Individual: $54.95 - Student: $54.95

The regulation of Outsiders to Aboriginal Country is theorised by scholars as invasion and contact, race relations, frontiers and acculturation. This research study investigates the agency of a Rainforest Aboriginal Community in the regulation of Outsiders to their Country of past, present and future.

Rethinking Indigenous Education: Culturalism, Colonialism and the Politics of Knowing

Cathryn McConaghy

ISBN: 978-1-876682-02-6, 2000, xv+312 pages, Institution: $89.25 - Individual: $59.50 - Student: $59.50

This book makes connections between processes by which disciplinary knowledges are constituted in colonial and postcolonial contexts; challenges obsessions with ethnography, with method and with 'Indigenous cultural difference' that limit the possibilities for decolonising Indigenous education.

Representations of Indigenous Australians in the Mainstream News Media

NEW TITLE

Clemence Due, Damien W Riggs

ISBN: 978-1-921214-95-0, 2011, 194 pages, Institution: $82.50 - Individual: $65.00 - Student: $55.00

Examining such diverse topics as native title, the History Wars, the Northern Territory Intervention, sexual abuse in Indigenous communities, gang violence, and the Apology to Indigenous Australians, the book provides practical ways to identify the rhetorical effects of particular media representations. In so doing, the book provides not only a snapshot of the ways in which Indigenous Australians are currently represented in the Australian news media, but also functions as a guide for conducting discourse analysis, and for using a critical approach to both identifying and challenging stereotypes.

Theorising Survival: Indigenous Women and Social and Emotional Wellbeing

NEW TITLE

Jennifer Baker

ISBN: 978-0-646575-78-0, 2012, 212 pages, Institution: $99.00 - Individual: $65.00 - Student: $52.00

This is a very important piece of work. It represents both a personal voyage of discovery and an important contribution to contemporary understanding of Indigenous affairs in Australia and to Indigenous practice in the fields of counselling, community development, policy analysis and theorising.

In Our Own Right: Black Australian Nurses' Stories

Sally Goold, Kerryne Liddle

ISBN: 978-0-9757422-2-8, 2005, xiii+120 pages, Institution: $66.00 - Individual: $33.00 - Student: $24.50

Told with incredible dignity and humility, each of the individual and deeply personal stories recounted is a powerful testimony to the gross inhumanity and brutal capacity of white people in Australia - colonists who selectively destroy and humiliate, without remorse, the lives and souls of their fellow black Australians.

Orphaned by the Colour of My Skin: A Stolen Generation Story

Mary Terszak

ISBN: 978-1-921348-08-2, 2007, viii+156 pages, Institution: $88.00 - Individual: $44.00 - Student: $33.00

In an invasive, paternalistic, federal public policy environment for Indigenous communities, this book provides an in-depth account of one person's experiences as a 'Stolen Generation' Aboriginal Australian. Told from the heart, the book speaks in the raw voice of a grandmother reflecting on her life, focusing on her childhood experiences, subsequent perceptions and life stories.

Mura Solwata Kosker: We Saltwater Women

*This book is available as a pdf from eBooks

Ellie Gaffney

ISBN: 978-0-9775742-0-9, 2006, iv+112 pages, Institution: $88.00 - Individual: $55.00 - Student: $38.50

Readers of this manuscript will be inspired by Ellie Gaffney's efforts on behalf of Torres Strait Islanders and all Indigenous people. It is a fitting reminder of the work and stature of a dedicated woman.

Boigu Island: Out of sight, out of mind

Catherine M. Demosthenous, Hellene T. Demosthenous, Susan A Hamilton

ISBN: 978-1-921214-82-0, 2010, 40 pages, Institution: $43.50 - Individual: $29.00 - Student: $29.00

The primary goal of this book is to report on the delivery of goods to the Community of Boigu Island, and in so doing share something of our experiences on the Island with the traditional people; a people who often miss out when it comes to their share of the nation's wealth and resources.

Patrons & Riders:

Conflicting Roles and Hidden Objectives in an Aboriginal Development Programme

Peter Willis

ISBN: 978-1-876682-40-8, 2003, xxvi+267 pages, Institution: $82.50 - Individual: $55.00 - Student: $55.00

Looking back (on what went wrong), Peter utilises 'exchange theory' to demonstrate how the Aboriginal strategy of selective collaboration 'riding' with their white patrons was also a method of resistance.
